Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1, 3-11 and 13-20 are presented for examination.

2. Claims 2 and 12 are cancelled.

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 1, 3-11 and 13-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1 and 3-10 are directed to a computer implemented method; claims 11 and 13-20 are directed to a computer program product, tangibly stored on a computer-readable medium comprising instructions operable to use a programmable processor to perform operations. All the claims are directed to a computer program. Computer programs fail to fit any of the four statutory classes of invention.

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

6. Claims 1, 3, 11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by "Adobe After effects Help: Stylized Effects", hereinafter referred to as Adobe.

With respect to claim 1, Adobe teaches the claimed receiving input defining a paint stroke, the paint stroke being defined in two dimensions, a position dimension and a time dimension, where in the position dimension, the paint stroke is defined by one or more position values defining a stroke path, and in the time dimension, the paint stroke is defined by one or more time values associated with values for one or more stroke parameters, each parameter representing an appearance attribute of the stroke; associating the position values with a first set of the time values; and for each parameter, associating the values for the parameter with a second set of the time values different from the first set of time values, at page 218 at Write-on effect controls. The Stroke Length specifies the length, in seconds, of the stroke at any moment. Change the stroke length at keyframes to make the length of the stroke expand and contract as it is drawn. And at Brush Time Properties specifies whether brush properties are applied to each stroke segment or to the entire stroke.

Claim 3 requires association of parameter values with time values to be a function. A mapping between the two is a function.

Claims 11 and 13 are similar to claims 1 and 3 respectively and are rejected under similar rationale.

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

8. Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 18 recites the limitation "The product of claim 1" in the preamble. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Claims 19 and 20 depend from claim 18 and are rejected based on that dependency.

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Almis R. Jankus whose telephone number is 571-272-7643. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, 6:30-3:00.
